Premier Wines from New York Featured At ENVY The Steakhouse's April Epicurean Wine Dinner

Las Vegas, Nevada (April 14, 2009) – From April 20 to 30, ENVY The Steakhouse's April Epicurean Wine Dinner will feature a selection of premier wines from upstate New York's historic Finger Lakes region, the center of New York's wine industry since the Civil War.

"ENVY The Steakhouse is dedicated to making each of our Epicurean Wine Dinners unique, and the chef's selections for this month will highlight the crisp flavors and fresh aromas of spring," said Anett Mindermann, general manager of ENVY The Steakhouse.

The selection of wines from New York State will be paired with a four-course meal from the same region. The paired dishes will include Hudson Valley Foie Gras, Champlain Valley Spring Salad, Grilled New York Steak and Port Wine Poached Bartlett Pears.

"We're excited to serve a selection of wines that will specifically augment each entrée for an exquisite dining experience," Mindermann added. The featured wines include a 2006 VINO Bianco and 2007 Blaufrankisch from the Channing Daughters.

In the coming months, ENVY The Steakhouse will feature monthly Epicurean Wine Dinners of the following themes:

- Northern vs. Southern Italy, May 18- 31
- The Real World of Rosé's, July 20- 31
- Wines from Argentina, August 17- 31
- Ales, Lagers and Blondes from Belgium, September 21- 30
- Wines from Hungary, November 16- 30
- Champagne featuring Louis Roederer, December 7- 31

The Epicurean Wine Dinner starts at $25 for a wine tasting, $55 for a four-course dinner and $75 for the dinner and wine pairing. Reservations are required. For reservations or more information about the Epicurean Wine Dinners, please contact the restaurant at 702.784.5716 or visit the website at www.envysteakhouse.com.
